Paris, March 13.

THE King has sent a Letter to the Elector Palatine to recommend to him the preserving the Tranquility in the Empire, and forbearing Innovations which may prove prejudicial to it. Provisions and all sort of Goods still continue to bear a very high Price. Deputies are arrived here from Guienne to represent to the Court, that the Prohibition of planting Tobacco will reduce to utter Ruin abundance of Families, who are brought up to it, and have no other Way left of getting a Livelihood. Other Provinces have caused the like Representations to be made. The Currency of Bank Bills, and the general Prohibition of keeping above 500 Livres in Cash, occasion the utmost Consternation all over the Kingdom. Stocks are very low for that Reason, and it must be expected what Means the Government will find for keeping up the publick Credit.

Heidelberg, March 6. On the 29th past, the Reformed Inhabitants delivered a Memorial to the Electoral Regency, relating to the Threatnings which the Magistrates made to them on the 23d, that if they would not yield up the Church of the Holy Ghost to the Elector, he would remove with his Court and the Colleges to Mannheim, and thereby ruin the Trade of the Town. The said Memorial is as follows:

IT is notorious to all the World, that upon the Peace which ensued after the War with France, during which this Town was burnt, so that we were obliged to live here in a miserable Condition for many Years, that the late Elector, his Electoral Highness's Brother, of glorious Memory, graciously granted us Privileges and issued Orders, promising us all manner of Assistance for rebuilding our Houses, and to protect and maintain us in the free Exercise of our Religion, and in the Possession of our Churches and Schools, and what belonged to them; which encouraged us, though many of us were already established in other Countries, to return to this Town, and to rebuild it with great Charge, whereby we were plunged into vast Debts. We conceived great Joy at the Resolution his Electoral Highness had taken, to fix his Residence in this Town, being perfectly confident, that under the happy Protection of our most gracious Sovereign and Lord, we were to live in Peace and Security, and enjoy a full Liberty of Conscience. But it is with extrem Grief we have been informed, that his Electoral Highness, out of Displeasure against us, has resolved to repair to Mannheim, to remove all his Colleges thither, to cause the Bridge over the Neckar to be broke off, and to reduce this Place to such a Condition, that it should rather be like a Village than a Town, and that the Grasse should grow before our Houses. Yet as we do not see by what we have deserved that Disgrace, nor that the Affair of the Church of the Holy Ghost can be the Cause of it; his Electoral Highness be pleased to remember, that when the said Church was taken from the Reformed, 40 or 50 Burghers did no more than to throw themselves at his Electoral Highness's Feet, most humbly to beg of him to cause it to be restored to them, after which we did not make any further Step. But since foreign Powers have interposed in this Affair, his Electoral Highness be pleased to consider, that it does no longer depend on us, and that we can in no manner dispose of it. Therefore we are in Hopes his Electoral Highness will not put in Execution the Threatnings of his Disgrace that have been intimated to us; but that on the contrary he will take us under his powerful Protection, and look upon us with his Sovereign and Paternal Favour. We will always behave in a due manner, so as to shew our profound Submission, and will remain with all possible Respect, &c.

They continue to disown at Court that they are any ways concerned in what the Magistrates of the Town have done. However, the Town of Mannheim have sent Deputies hither, who are every one of them Roman Catholics, to supplicate the Elector to reside with them. Baron Hillefheim was sent for to Court Yesterday, and received Orders from the Elector to see the Separation Wall in the Church of the Holy Ghost to be set up again, and all the Romish Ornaments to be removed from thence. That Minister who is known to have been the most active in turning the Reformed out of the Possession of their Church, is in some Measure removed from the Conferences with the Ministers of the Protestant Powers, and Baron Hundheim is employed in his Room. The Regency have not yet concerted Measures with the Reformed Consistory, for putting them into the Possession of the Nave of the said Church, pursuant to the Orders issued by the Elector. A Jesuit who preached in it last Sunday was Seven Night, inveighed with great Bitterness against the Protestants, very much blaming at the same time his Brethren, for having by their Rashness discovered to soon their Design, which are now crossed by the Interposition of so many powerful Princes.

Brussels, March 11. The Prince de Ligne is returned hither from Flanders, whither he was sent to receive Homage in the Emperor's Name, in that Part of Flanders which was conquer'd from France in the late War, and has since been delivered up by the States General to the Emperor; Yesterday he made Report to the Marquess de Prié, of the Execution of his Commission at Tournay, Ipres, and Menin, where he was received with great Magnificence. The same Day his Excellency received the Compliments of Condolence from the Magistrates of this Place, and other Persons of Distinction, on Account of the Death of the Count de Reckhem his Son in Law, who died lately at Paris.
